5. Uniforms

Students who have tampered/ abused the school uniform and those who have outgrown them are advised to replace with new ones. The continuing students who may want to acquire the Sunday wear should pay 52,000/= to the bursar.

We are encouraging our girls to purchase black casual skirts from school at 25,000/= each for decency and uniformity.

For more information contact;

Mr. Mayamba (0785139657)/ Md. Shanaaz (0782658719)

6. School contacts

We are glad to inform you that; in addition to our official MTN lines (0393 103 418, 0775 831 844), the school has procured an Airtel official line (0757 153 348) to ease communication.

7. Health:

As communicated earlier, we have partnered with Mengo Hospital to handle our students in case of severe conditions and emergencies. Parents are expected to meet the cost of hospital treatment. We also advise parents to report any health related problems of their children to the Administration.

8. Rampant kidnaps in the country

Our dear parents, due to the rampant cases of kidnaps in our country, we kindly request you to ensure that you pick and bring back your daughters whenever called upon.

We also argue you to settle down your child's fees wholesomely to avoid sending him/her home and increase on the risk of kidnaps which are worrying all of us. In case of any school fees reminders, please respond immediately.

9. Academic tours
